You're on me

Edwin Borrero Medina

In the darkness
I see your face
I can't have you but I feel you
I image your eyes,
your hair and your skin…

I can't be with you
but your memory is mine
I lift my hands
seeking you...

You're on me.

You're far away
you're with me
you are close in my thoughts
I walk toward you
but it cannot be...

Even if only for moments, really
I feel your arrival
but I cannot tell you come to me...

In the darkness
I see your face
I close my eyes...

You're on me
you... you're on me.
